Statement of Compliance

Г

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.	They have full choices regarding all aspects of their care. Famil y members are encouraged to provide input into their care plan ning. Individual meetings with our manager assist in providing w hat the service users require on a personal level.
The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	Thorough health records are kept including blood pressure, wei ghts, fluid intake and bowel charts to ensure that any changes a re picked up early. Also these records are useful for visiting GP s and district nurses. All food is home made from fresh ingredients and dietary needs recorded
The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	Fully trained staff are always observant to any changes in our s ervice users. Management are present daily and available to di scuss issues with either staff or service users
The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.	All bedrooms are recently refurbished to a high standard. Servi ce users are encouraged to bring any possessions to personali se their rooms. Passenger lift for service users with restricted m obility. We have invested in several electric profiling beds which assist both our staff and service users to enter and exit bed
