Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.

We have open door policy. Residents can express their concer ns and needs. They can communicate with manager on daily b asis. Residents meeting enables the resident to engage in topic of conversation, they can express their wish and concern. We e nsure that every individual using our service has a care and su pport plan that consults the individual, representatives to deter mine what matters to them; this is kept under constant review a nd includes the views of the person and their representative. O ur Care Plan discuss the individual preferences, choices in how and when their care is delivered.

The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.

Overall wellbeing encompasses physical, mental, and emotional health, as well as a sense of purpose and fulfillment in life. All s ervice users have access to resources and support systems th at facilitate their ongoing growth and development, and that the y are able to participate in activities that bring them joy and sati sfaction. This can include access to healthcare and education, opportunities for social connection and engagement, and a saf e and supportive living environment. we have provided with opp ortunities to develop social and emotional skills that will support their long-term success and wellbeing. Personal Care and treat ment plans are detailed to inform and enable the staff to meet o ur residents health and support needs and help them to achiev e their personal outcomes. Residents are listned too; they have supported to make choices.

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.

we provide a service that ensures our residents are safe and ar e protected from abuse, neglect and improper treatment by wor king collaboratively with partners to prevent and take immediate action where abuse is suspected or identified.

We follow robust recruitment process, all our staff receives train ing relevant to their roles at induction to understand their respo nsibilities to safeguard and protect vulnerable people.

We have up to date safeguarding policy in place which are kept under review and is aligned to current legislation.

The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.

This depends on a variety of factors, including the individual's n eeds and preferences, their financial Our accommodation provi des facilities and equipment that are suitable to meet the needs of the individual using our service as stated in our statement of purpose

We take the views of our residents in to the account when the h ome is being renovated ,areas are being re designed and equi pment is being purchased. We have quarterly upgrade progra m to ensure our environment is well maintained. Security arran gements are in place to make sure residents are safe and secu re. The outdoor space within the home is kept tidy, safe and ac cessible to all our residents.
