Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published  $\underline{\text{guidance}}$  on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.	Visits have resumed to normal now following previous restrictions during and immediate following the Covid pandemic. Visitors no longer have to make an appointment.
	The residents are encouraged to speak up about any concerns about any matters at all, and they are assured that if they do h ave any concerns or wishes, they will be listened to and it will b e acted upon.
	Surveys are conducted to ascertain the satisfaction of the servi ce from residents, representatives, staff and health professionals.
The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	Residents are supported to maintain their ongoing health need s, their own choices and preferences. If a resident does not have capacity, liaising with their family and health professionals takes place so that we are acting in the best interests of the individual. All residents have numerous care plans and risk assessments to reflect their health and needs. If a resident has a diagnos is of dementia or possible dementia or confusion, a Dols author isation is applied for.
The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	The home works in a transparent manner with other agencies.
The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.	Audits are carried out regularly to ensure the ongoing best pra ctices of the service and include: Health and safety Medication Infection control Hand hygiene Falls/accidents Care plans Kitchen
