Training and Workforce Ranning
Describe the arrangements in place during the last financial year for identifying, planning and meeting the training needs of staff employed by the service provider	Management take time to discuss with staff via supervision, at inte rview and look at training needs via questionnaire's, review of trai ning matrix and online training list. Plans are made with local traini ng providers, social services, local health board and colleges to e nsure that staff have sufficient up to date training in place. Manua I handling training is mandatory before being able to join Care Ce ntres Wales Itd.
Describe the arrangements in place during the last financial year for the recruitment and retention of staff employed by the service provider	Management have run advertisements on external websites such as Indeed and council and local health board pages when staff ha s been required. We have also used a local recruitment agency w ho arranged interviews for us without much success. Over the pas t few months, we have received a huge surge of interest from ove rseas students studying in Swansea University or have family me mbers studying. The number of new staff who have joined us rece ntly has been a quite impressive and continues to grow.

Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.	All residents within the home are encouraged with choice and in tegration becoming part of the 'family' at Pen y Bryn. Staff pers onalities and friendships with our residents have established a very strong bond, which helps to enable everybody to be cared for in the way they wish at all times. Covid has had a huge affect on the way that everybody has been able to live over the past few years during the pandemic and we are happy to say that thi ngs are now moving back in the right direction, especially with i nclusion of family, friends and visitors to the home.
The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	People's ability to be supported especially with their ongoing he alth and mental health needs has also improved since the pand emic has now subsided. Health input from professionals coming back in to the home is now returning slowly and getting back to normal (as can be) and although emergency services are extre mely slow, physical needs are pre-emptied where needed espe cially with end-of-life care. G.P. surgeries have a very good rap port with us and interact daily.
The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	Staff are well trained and this shows in the way in which everyb ody is cared for. People's needs are met and risk of harm is de creased as staff caring for them have the knowledge and experi ence to look at the bigger picture and protect everybody from a buse and neglect.
The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.	All residents are assessed regarding their needs and each indi vidual care plan is written in a person-centred manner. We mos tly have nursing residents within the home and support them wit h a package of care that encourages them to be the very best t hat they can be. Individualised care supports their well being an d interests in life. Activities and entertainment are now being rei ntroduced again since the pandemic requirements for testing h as lifted, residents enjoy games, arts and crafts, singers, caring canine's, hairdressing, chiropodist, games, word searches, rea ding, listening to music and books and interactions with staff, fa mily and visitors to the home.
