Training and Workforce Planning

Describe the arrangements in place during the last financial year for identifying, planning and meeting the training needs of staff employed by the service provider

Staff training was identified at the recruitment stage, during the in duction process and with current staff during the supervision process. It was recognised following incidents or events which identified additional or refresher training in certain areas was required. Planning staff training, new staff complete a twelve week induction process where mandatory training is provided and this is followed up with external training with a suitable training provider. Training is assessed on job roles.

Describe the arrangements in place during the last financial year for the recruitment and retention of staff employed by the service provider

We have a on going process for the recruitment of care staff, fro mattending job fayres, advertising on social media platforms, pai d advertising through recognised job boards and of course word of mouth. In retaining our staff, we offer well received employment incentives for example graded pay based on the level of Social C are Qualification, full mileage allowance of 45p and an annual car maintenance scheme. We have a star of the month, referral sche me and praising for a job well done.
