Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.

Regular residents meetings are held. Residents choose the activities that they participate in with our full time activities coordina tor. Our residents have choice and the care at Highgrove is per son-centered.

The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	We have regular visits from district nurses, podiatrists, physioth erapists, occupational therapists and GPs. Residents are supported for all hospital and other appointments.
The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	There is a rigorous whistle-blowing policy at Highgrove. All staff are aware that the manager or deputy is available at all times.
The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.	Residents are encouraged to decorate and furnish their rooms as they wish.
