Training and Workforce Planning

Describe the arrangements in place during the last financial year for identifying, planning and meeting the training needs of staff employed by the service provider	We currently utilise both face to face and eLearning training here at Woodside House. We have a service provided by Evergreen for the face to face training and social care TV for the e learning. Manual handling of all staff
Describe the arrangements in place during the last financial year for the recruitment and retention of staff employed by the service provider	The business strategy is that we try to utilise the local recruitment but on times we do struggle to recruit locally and have to utilise the foreign agency for over seas staff as recruitment can be required at a specific time and applicants locally can be slow to apply for the health care profession.

Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.	Regular residents meetings with the home manager are in place, and he takes on board their compliments and complaints within the service and there are resident feedback forms in place that he completes with the residents.
The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	Residents beliefs and wishes and choices are valued within the care home, promoting good wellbeing and freedom of choice supported by the staff at all times activities coordinator is also involved on daily basis too.
The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	The home has a locked door policy to keep the residents safe at all times. There is a whistle blowing policy also in place so that if there was any cases or suspected abuse the policy reporting procedure would come into effect.
The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.	The monthly and timely changes to the care plans are assessments
