Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.

We are aware that our residents have given up a good deal of t heir independence by entering a group living situation. We aim to promote and maintain individual independence by:-

- 1. listening carefully to residents and/or their family and friends to understand any special requirements or preferences.
- 2. Encouraging and enabling residents to contribute to their ow n care plan.
- 3. Providing as tactfully as possible human or technical assistance when it is needed
- 4. Maximising the abilities our residents retain for self-care, for i ndependent interaction with others, and for carrying out the tas ks of daily living unaided
- 5. Helping residents take reasonable and fully thought-out risks6. Promoting possibilities for residents to establish and retain c ontacts beyond the Home
- 7. Encouraging residents to have access to and contribute to the records of their own care

The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.

We want to help our residents to realise their personal aspirations and abilities an all aspects of their lives.

We seek to assist this in the following ways:

- 1. Discovering as fully, as each resident wishes, their individual histories and characteristics
- 2. Providing a range of leisure and recreational activities to suit the tastes and abilities of all residents and to stimulate participa
- 3. Responding appropriately to the personal, intellectual, artistic and spiritual values and practices of every resident
- 4. Respecting our residents' religious, ethnic, sexual, and cultur al orientation
- 5. Helping our residents to maintain existing contacts and to ma ke new liaisons, friendships and personal relationships if they w ish
- 6. Attempting always to listen and attend promptly to any reside nt's desire to communicate at whatever level

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.

Some residents may have sought admission to the Home as an escape from elements in their previous living arrangements. We therefore aim to provide an environment and structure of support, which responds to this need in the following ways:

- 1. Offering assistance with tasks and in situations, which would otherwise be perilous for residents
- 2. Avoiding as far as possible the dangers especially common a mong older people, notably the risk of falling
- 3. Protecting residents from all forms of abuse and from all pos sible abusers
- 4. Providing readily accessible channels for dealing with complaints by residents, their representatives and staff.
- 5. Creating an atmosphere in the Home which residents experie nce as open, positive and inclusive.

The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.

On admission to Hollyland Lodge, information is sought from re sidents and their families as to their personal Interests and hob bies, to allow staff to enable residents to continue with these ac tivities. As a result of collated information, an individual care pla n for each resident is prepared. These are currently reviewed on a monthly basis. However, they can be reviewed more frequently if a change of circumstances or an on-going or developing problem arises. Residents, their family and friends, health professionals and Social Services are encouraged to become involved in the preparation of care plans.
