Training and Workforce Planning

Describe the arrangements in place during the last financial year for identifying, planning and meeting the training needs of staff employed by the service provider	Overseen by our Academy monthly MI informs QOCR/meetings to focus training strategies ensuring sufficient/appropriate skills/knowledge/key roles meet residents/company needs & enrich lives. Individual training is identified & embedded through our induction & mandatory program & delivered through toolkits including policies, procedures, knowledge & specialist toolkits. Handbooks support vertical & horizontal career progression. We access external training/quals & assess through expert witnesses.
Describe the arrangements in place during the last financial year for the recruitment and retention of staff employed by the service provider	RMs manage staffing requirements - recruitment/retention/active bank staff. We rarely use Agency eg in a pandemic. We advertise on our website & across sites/social media. Staff retention is managed through induction/training/development/progression. We review turnover rates, exit interviews and absences. Recruitment follows rigorous regulatory fitness for work practices. Induction includes All about Pendine (values/cultures/vision), mandatory and job role specific including individual reviews.

Typical shift patterns in operation for employed staff

Set out the typical shift patterns of staff employed at the service in this role type. You should also include the average number of staff working in each shift.

Rotas and specific staff numbers are pre-arranged to meet resident needs across a Monday to Sunday cycle, and are dynamic to be relevant to occupancy and responsive to additional and changing resident needs, eg one-to-one care. Actual staffing is recorded on our Time & Attendance system.

07:30-14:00 = 3
 14:00-21:00 = 3
 21:00-07:30 = 1

The above staff numbers are ONLY indicative of a shift/average cycle and are EXcluding special care arrangements e.g. 1:1. Enrichment staff are not included.

Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.	Voices are heard, including residents and their representatives, staff, professional and other visitors by: Assessing care needs prior to admission and during residency that includes the physical, mental, and emotional needs of the 'mind body and soul' and is clearly agreed and delivered to achieve positive personal outcomes. Risks are identified, assessed, and mitigated, supporting positive risk taking and independence where appropriate. Residents and/or their representatives are involved in care planning and health and wellbeing decision-making including best interest decisions, subject to the Mental Capacity Act and achieving safe and positive personal outcomes.
The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	People are supported to live well by: Every life is enriched as the quality of care is delivered in accordance with our values, cultures, and Statement of Purpose, and with respect, dignity, and compassion to achieve positive personal outcomes. Residents are supported to maintain family and personal relationships and relationships with an independent community, where appropriate, which through partnership and community working provides seamless care and support. We promote everyone's culture and nationality is recognised. There can be an involvement in social media if they so wish.
The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	People are safe because the quality of care is delivered in accordance with the Regulation and Inspection of Social Care (Wales) Act 2016 and an agreed contract to ensure: There is protection from abuse and neglect. Human rights met. Data protection upheld. Care is provided and supported by trained, skilled, and confident staff, who are highly motivated and safely recruited and developed within a culture of continuous learning and development. Appropriate resources are provided including staff at various levels of skills and experience, as well as well-maintained premises, facilities, and equipment, and adequate stocks. A safe environment inside out.

The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.

People live in suitable accommodation and environment by providing:

A branded, clean, and comfortable environment in which to live a life well lived and the ability to influence own room and communal areas, as appropriate

The enjoyment of beautiful gardens.

The pleasure of good, nutritious seasonal food with delights and treats enriching special and any occasions.

The benefit of a timely laundry service, fresh linen, and clothing
