Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.	All people who use our service are fully involved in assessment and review procedures enabling them to make choices in how t heir care is delivered. Our users sign an agreement acknowled ging this opportunity within the initial assessment process. We enable users to make comments on our regular surveys and co ntact with management /senior team is easy if users wish to dis cuss their care.
The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	People who use our service are given every opportunity to rais e issues if need be regarding this matter but we have not had n issue with this. We receive thank you card/notices, emails and phone calls on a regular basis from users and relatives comme nding the service they receive and the staff who help to deliver it.

	People using our service are given the information at the comm encement of pack and part of their initial assessment regarding the checks made on staff. This helps them to feel safe in the kn owledge that the people caring for them have been thoroughly checked before their appointment to the position. The informati on also details the staff training that is in place to help protect t hem from such occurrences. Users/relatives are also given instr uction on how to report any issues to us or further if they feel w e haven't handled an issue they have correctly.
