Training and Workforce Planning

Describe the arrangements in place during the last financial year for identifying, planning and meeting the training needs of staff employed by the service provider

Staff training is identified individually with staff through their super vision. The training matrix is then updated from this information an d in discussion with Red Crier ( who provide an online learning ma nagement system), and People Plus Cymru who provide the QCF training. In addition any other training providers are identified. In the last financial year we have continued to provide training through Red Crier and People Plus Cymru, and Astutis for NEBOSH

Describe the arrangements in place during the last financial year for the recruitment and retention of staff employed by the service provider

The last twelve months have been challenging for recruitment. We have continued as previously advertising vacancies by word of mouth and online, fortunately being able to fill vacancies. In addition we have worked with staff to encourage retention by supporting them through supervision, training and renumeration.

Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.	Staff work with residents to ensure that their voices are heard a nd they have a choice about their care and support and opport unities to develop.  This is done through monthly key worker reviews where how the previous month has gone, what they would like to do in the next month and what extra help they need. In addition all residents have their care plans reviewed six monthly jointly with them and they are involved in a six monthly quality review
The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	As with the above. All care plans include ongoing health, devel opment and wellbeing and how this can be met
The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	All residents have risk assessments and management plans. T hey all live in one or two bedroom units with lockable front door s and lockable bedrooms.  Information is provided in respect of safeguarding and referrals are made where concerns are highlighted
The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.	All residents are assessed in order to ensure that the home be st meets their needs. In addition the home is reviewed by variou s commissioners to ensure that the service continues to meet t heir needs. Evaluations are monthly and care plan reviews are six monthly
